

Advanced Shooting Incident Analysis & Reconstruction

January 5, 2026 to January 9, 2026

Hosted by:

The Orlando Police Department

Presented by Highlands Forensic Investigations & Consulting

LOCATION

100 George DeSalvia Way
Orlando, FL 32807

Course Fee: $1,000

IAI approved for initial crime scene certification and recertification

Participants are required to have attended a Basic Shooting Incident Reconstruction Course and bring a laptop with Microsoft Word & PowerPoint

All other materials will be provided by the host and Highlands

For Information, Questions and to Register Contact:

Jim Molinaro @ 908-625-0958 (cell) or via email @
jmolinaro@highlandsforensics.com

Topics Include

- Review of Basic SIR Topics
- Reconstruction - Key Concepts & Methodology
- The Role of Objectivity & the Influence of Bias During the Reconstruction Process
- Small Group Activity - Processing a Motor Vehicle Shooting Scene
- Incorporation of Bloodstain Analysis into a Reconstruction
- The Human Body as a Target & Incorporation of Wound Tracks
- Small Group Activity - Reconstruction of an Actual Case Study
- Writing the Reconstruction Report & Testimony
- Small Group Activity - Presentation of PowerPoint Case Study Reconstruction & Findings

James P. Molinaro

- Consultant, Highlands Forensic Investigations & Consulting
- Instructor, UT National Forensic Academy
- Lieutenant, New Jersey State Police (retired)

Howard J. Ryan

- Consultant, Highlands Forensic Investigations & Consulting
- Instructor, UT National Forensic Academy
- Lieutenant, New Jersey State Police (retired)